DEDICATION

Mrs. Morrison

Mr. Ford

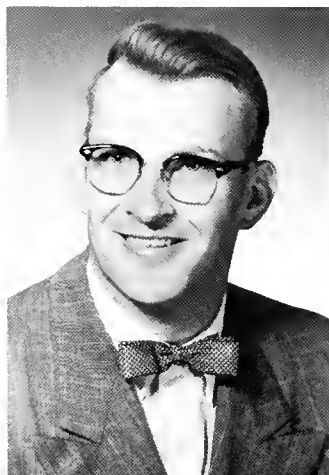

From a sturdy foundation to the lofty pinnacles of ideals, we salute the finest. To the longest road there comes an end. Every rose has its thorn and every joy has its under current of sorrow, but from these shadows we see the shining lights that have been guide posts to our journey.

To us from you, Mrs. Morrison and Mr. Ford, your understanding and guidance have transcended all doubts and fears of the future. Your precepts and examples will always exemplify the noble qualities of men and women. Our association with you will always bring fond memories and stimulate us to meet every challenge.
